

THE FUTURE IS
WOW!

THE CAMPAIGN
FOR LEGACY HALL

Legacy Hall, Florida State University's new building for the College of Business, is a showcase facility—one that provides more instructional space, one that is smartly configured to foster connections and collaboration, and one that integrates learning with the latest technologies. The result is a transformational educational experience for our students, our faculty, our alumni and our corporate partners.

ESTIMATED BUILDING COST:

$88 million

[including furnishings and equipment]

UNIVERSITY/STATE FUNDING:

$44 million

PRIVATE SUPPORT:

$44 million

Our new facility is designed to provide space for students to develop their ideas for a new business venture, to learn investment strategies from Wall Street insiders, to practice sales calls in a state-of-the-art lab or to conduct research on current and emerging business issues. Legacy Hall provides Florida State University the opportunity to make a greater positive impact on the art and science of business in Florida, in our nation and in our world.

More and more, we rely on visionary alumni and friends like you to invest in critical areas like Legacy Hall to keep us on the path to preeminence and to provide the high-caliber education our students expect and deserve. For us, the vision is clear. We are not just building Legacy Hall; we are building our legacy for tomorrow.

FLORIDA STATE UNIVERSITY COLLEGE OF BUSINESS

Showcase Spaces

Atrium

NAMING GIFT: $5 million

The prominent focal point of the new building, the Atrium welcomes students, faculty members and visitors to the College of Business. Visible from the first, second and third floors, the Atrium serves as a gathering place as well as the entry to classrooms and an auditorium. It also provides a showcase setting for major speaking events throughout the year.

Entry Plaza

NAMING GIFT: $2 million

The Entry Plaza faces Gaines Street and serves as the primary entry point to the new building, as well as the southeastern gateway to the university's Arena District. For this reason, the Entry Plaza experiences high pedestrian traffic each day. It also serves as a gathering space for events, and provides a relaxing place for students, faculty, staff and visitors to work together or simply take a break.

Showcase Spaces

Financial Laboratory (Trading Room)

NAMING GIFT: $2 million

A marquee space in the new building, the Financial Laboratory (Trading Room) has a highly prominent location, visible from both the atrium and the building's exterior. A larger, more advanced financial laboratory provides a significant boost for the Department of Finance and our Student Investment Fund. Incorporating technology used by Wall Street investment firms, including Bloomberg terminals, the Financial Laboratory gives upper-level finance students hands-on, real-world experience. The training students receive in financial modeling and portfolio management gives them an edge in a highly competitive job market.

Terrace

NAMING GIFT: $1 million

The Terrace (located on the third floor) is a flexible event space under the canopy of Burnette Park. The Terrace will host college and university events, as well as pre- and post-meeting activities for the college's boardroom. When not used for events, the Terrace serves as a relaxation area for faculty and staff.

Showcase Spaces

Undergraduate Commons (The Landing)

NAMING GIFT: $1 million

Located on the first floor overlooking the atrium, the Landing is what students want it to be: a place to study, chat with a professor, sketch ideas on whiteboards or simply relax between classes.

Forum Stairs

NAMING GIFT: $1 million

The Forum Stairs lie at the heart of the atrium and connect the ground floor to the first-floor entry at Burnette Park and Gaines Street. The Forum Stairs are not simply stairs; they are the main connecting point within Legacy Hall and offer seating areas for students and faculty to connect.

Legacy Café

NAMING GIFT: $500,000

Located on the first floor, the Legacy Café is accessible from the first-floor atrium and the colonnade that sits along Gaines Street. The Legacy Café is a highly visible location with significant student and faculty traffic each day.

Colonnade

NAMING GIFT: $500,000

The Colonnade, a veranda-styled patio along the Gaines Street side of Legacy Hall, provides a covered, outdoor seating area for students, faculty, staff and visitors. The Colonnade is accessible from both the building exterior and the Legacy Hall Café, making it an ideal place to meet for a cup of coffee or to study over lunch. Given its prominent location, the Colonnade will see continual use throughout the year.

Second Floor Commons

NAMING GIFT: $500,000

With a commanding view overlooking the atrium, this student-focused commons space is a prime location to study or network. The many rooms around the Second Floor Commons, including breakout rooms, the Real Estate War Room and several classrooms along with accessibility from the Landing (first floor commons), ensure continual usage throughout the workday.

Showcase Spaces

Real Estate Research Lab

NAMING GIFT: $250,000

The Real Estate Research Lab, or the “War Room,” is space dedicated to advancing the real estate profession and training a new generation of experts. Designed for collaborative work and video conferencing, the room has multiple large touchscreen computers that run a variety of powerful applications specific to the industry.

Legacy View Bridges [THREE AVAILABLE]

NAMING GIFT: $250,000

Located on the first, second and third floors, the Legacy View Bridges are a unique feature of the new building. These bridges connect the north and south sides of the building, offer seating areas for students and faculty, and have commanding views of both the atrium and the Legacy Walk entrance.

Graduate Programs Suite

NAMING GIFT: $250,000

Occupying a highly visible space, the Graduate Programs Suite encompasses our entire graduate advising operation. This space, which serves more than 600 graduate business students throughout the year, contains nine offices, a conference room, a primary waiting area and a reception area.

BAISSC Department Suite

NAMING GIFT: $250,000

Highly visible, this space houses the Department of Business Analytics, Information Systems and Supply Chain, including office space for the chair, assistant chair and administrative assistant.

Master's Commons

NAMING GIFT: $200,000

Located away from the main traffic areas of the building, the Master's Commons is what students want it to be: a place to study, chat with a professor, sketch ideas on whiteboards or simply relax between classes.

Academic Spaces

50-Seat Classroom

NAMING GIFT: $300,000

The 50-Seat Classroom is the cornerstone of our college's graduate student experience. Most master's courses are taught in these classrooms, which are easily reconfigured to meet the needs of the instructor.

Computer Teaching Classroom

NAMING GIFT: $300,000

This general purpose 40-workstation computer classroom hosts classes in which students are required to use computers and software in the educational environment.

40-Seat Classroom [TWO AVAILABLE]

NAMING GIFT: $250,000

The 40-Seat Classroom is the cornerstone of the college's undergraduate experience. Most undergraduate courses are taught in these classrooms, which can be easily reconfigured to meet the needs of the instructor.

Laboratory and Technology Spaces

Academic and Behavioral Research Lab

NAMING GIFT: $250,000

The Academic and Behavioral Research Lab supports the behavioral research initiatives of faculty and doctoral students, thereby helping the college recruit and retain world-class faculty members. By supporting premier research, the lab also helps sustain the preeminent status of the college.

Distance-Learning Studio

NAMING GIFT: $250,000

This state-of-the-art studio houses all of the college's academic technology systems. These include a full recording studio and the ability to broadcast live from anywhere in the world via internet technologies.

Faculty and Staff Offices

Master's Teaching Assistants Office Suite

NAMING GIFT: $100,000

This suite provides space for master's teaching assistants to work with undergraduate students and provide teaching support. It also provides space for master's students to work on research and other projects assigned by faculty. This space will be used continually by undergraduate students, master's students and faculty members.

Assistant Department Chair's Office [ONE AVAILABLE]

NAMING GIFT: $25,000

The Assistant Department Chair office in the Department of Business Analytics, Information Systems and Supply Chain is available. The assistant chair works closely with the faculty, students and staff within the department and across the college.

Program Director's Office [SEVEN AVAILABLE]

NAMING GIFT: $25,000

A variety of program directors' offices are available: Finance/HR Director, Marketing Director, Accreditation Director, Undergraduate Programs Director, Graduate Programs Director, IT Director and Academic Technology Director.

Center Director's Office [TWO AVAILABLE]

NAMING GIFT: $25,000

Two center directors' offices are available: Professional Development Center Director and HR Center Director.

Faculty Offices [121 AVAILABLE]

NAMING GIFT: $25,000

Private faculty offices are available in every academic department.

Staff Offices [86 AVAILABLE]

NAMING GIFT: $15,000

Staff offices are available across the college within the Dean's Suite, each academic department, undergraduate and graduate advising, and each research center.
